Our decision on your application

We are pleased to tell you that we have approved your application for a Partnership resident visa.

Your resident visa and travel conditions

We have granted you a resident visa with travel conditions. Your visa allows you to live, work, and study in New Zealand. It will not expire while you remain in New Zealand.

Your eVisa with your visa details is attached to the back of this letter. Please check the details and make sure they are correct and contact us if they are not.

Remove your eVisa from this letter and carry it with you when travelling.

Expiry of your resident visa

Your travel conditions allow you to travel outside New Zealand and be granted re-entry into New Zealand as a resident when you return. They are valid until 17 May 2026. Your resident visa will expire if you leave New Zealand and you do not have valid travel conditions that allow you to return as a resident.

If you are travelling outside New Zealand and plan to return after your current travel conditions expire, you will need to apply for a variation of travel conditions, or a permanent resident visa. However, if you do not leave New Zealand, your resident visa allows you to stay indefinitely.

Applying for a permanent resident visa

After you have held your resident visa for two years you will be eligible to apply for a permanent resident visa. Permanent resident visas are not subject to travel conditions and do not expire. If you are granted a permanent resident visa, you will be able to travel outside New Zealand and be allowed re-entry into New Zealand as a resident at any time.

Please see INZ's Guide for Resident Visa Holders on our website (www.immigration.govt.nz/residentvisaholderguide) for more information.

New Zealand Traveller Declaration

If you are outside of New Zealand, you must complete a New Zealand Traveller Declaration to enter New Zealand. You can complete a declaration online 24 hours before you start your journey to New Zealand. For more information see www.travellerdeclaration.govt.nz.

Your resident visa and travel conditions

Your resident visa allows you to live, work, and study in New Zealand indefinitely. It will not expire while you remain in New Zealand. You will have the ability to travel in and out of New Zealand as many times as you like for a certain period after your resident visa is granted. This is called your travel conditions.

Your travel conditions are valid until: 17 May 2026

Expiry of your resident visa

If you are travelling outside New Zealand and plan to return after your current travel conditions expire, you will need to apply for a variation of travel conditions or a permanent resident visa (if you qualify). However, if you do not leave New Zealand, your resident visa allows you to stay indefinitely.

How can you prove your visa details without a visa label in your passport?

Your employer can verify the details of your visa online using VisaView. With your consent, other people or organisations such as health care providers or travel agents can verify the details of your visa using the Visa Verification Service. See: immigration.govt.nz/visaview.

Do you have a new passport?

If you get a new passport while this visa is still valid, you must request INZ to update your visa details so that they match your new passport. INZ's website has information on how to do this: immigration.govt.nz/transfervisa.
